

PROFILE

Ed & Cecilia Dalbello – Missionaries to Argentina

- Ed is an ordained minister with the Assemblies of God;
- His first background was in electronics
- Later he graduated with a bachelors degree in theology through Berean School of the Bible with the first class offered by his church Evangel Temple in Tampa FL.
- Ed and Cecilia moved to Georgia, established a business and served as children pastors in Savannah-Ga for five years.
- Although living in Savannah-Ga, he enrolled at Florida Christian University in Orlando FL, where he had to travel intensively to take nine hour Saturday classes, whole week classes, videos, seminars and conferences to graduate with his Bachelors degree, Masters degree and now finally in 2007 he received the title of Doctor of Ministry in Christian Clinical Counseling.
- Ed’s passion is “Family Ministry”; to minister to families, marriage seminars, counseling and also reaching out to needy children.
- In obedience to God’s call, he gave up his business in electronics and a future career as professional counselor to go to a new country, to a new culture, as a missionary.

- Cecilia has a compassion ministry. She loves ministering to the needy.
- She has a degree in teaching, another degree in Counseling and is finishing her Masters in Christian Clinical Counseling. She also studied theology through Berean School of the Bible and has a license with the Assemblies of God.
- She speaks English, Spanish and Portuguese. Cecilia was the Missionettes coordinator for five years in Savannah where she was able to see many girls’ lives changed by the power of God.

Active Ministry

In Argentina Ed is the National Coordinator for LACC (Latin America Child Care) a compassion ministry for evangelizing and providing education to poor children around the world. He oversees ten schools in Argentina.
